

CHANGING CLOSETS CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

We accept name brand clothing which is cleaned, pressed and on hangers. All apparel and accessories must be within the last 3 years of style, smoke-free, and in excellent condition.

Items will be consigned for a 60-day period unless otherwise indicated. Items can be discounted at the sole discretion of Changing Closets. You will receive 40% of the price the items sells for. Please note that if you decide to drop-off your items and not wait, you MUST return in 3 days to pick up any items not accepted. Items not picked up will be donated to charity.

When the 60-day period has ended, all unsold items become the sole property of Changing Closets. If you would like your items returned to you, YOU must call Changing Closets at least 5 business days before your 60-day period has ended to arrange for pick-up of your items. Please note that we are constantly donating items to many worthy Rochester organizations and due to space limitations we are not responsible for any of your items after 65 days.

Stop in anytime for monies owed to you. It is the consignor's responsibility to pick up the check. At the end of 12 months, money not picked up by consignors will become property of Changing Closets.

Oops!! We did not catch a spot, tear, rip, broken zipper, chip, etc. when we accepted your items. Those items without exception will be donated.

Changing Closets is not responsible for loss or damage to articles on consignment due to fire, water, smoke, natural disaster, theft and/or other causes. Changing Closets is not responsible to contact the consignor by phone or email for any reason.
